

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela expresses its most heartfelt condolences to the people of the United States of America for the recent acts of violence that have taken place in the townships of Atlanta, Georgia and Boulder, Colorado, which left 18 victims in total.

Venezuela has confidence in the unbreakable spirit of the people of the United States to confront the tragedy and generate profound reflections within its society that will allow them to definitely overcome hate crimes and the culture of armed violence.

Venezuela, during these difficult times, wishes to extend its solidarity to the families and friends of the victims of all acts of violence of this sort that have taken place recently in the country.
