Communiqué

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela extends its most sincere words of congratulation to the sisterly Republic of India for a new celebration of the International Day of Yoga; a millenary system of knowledge and practices at the service of humanity.

At an unprecedented time when millions of people have seen their quality of life impaired, yoga has emerged as a useful tool for coping with the stress of uncertainty and isolation in the aftermath of the devastating global pandemic of COVID-19.

On this memorable day, the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela joins the celebration, which is a support to raise awareness among the peoples of the world about the benefits of the practice of yoga for physical, mental and spiritual well-being.

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela takes this opportunity to reiterate its words of solidarity, sincere brotherhood and friendship with the Government and People of India.
